

Walter J. Spendley, Sr.
TWENTIETH CENTURY DIRECTORY

INTRODUCTION

A little over 20 years ago, while Ann and I were reminiscing, we came to the conclusion that family togetherness was almost non-existent. In the early years of our lives, events such as Christenings, Birthdays and Weddings were celebrated and enjoyed in the various homes. Family socializing had stopped and we determined this was caused by the advent of radio, then television, and more recently by business firms moving their operations to other areas, taking employees with them.

We were disturbed so we came up with the idea of putting together a family tree. A genealogist informed us that various methods were available such as: Family Tree, Directory, Lineage Chart and Heritage Chart. We decided to start the regular block form Family Tree. The initial tracing revealed the Swick family emigrated from Germany to America in 1820 and the Wilhelm family emigrated from Germany about 1850. It was called the Wilhelm-Swick tree.

Information was accumulated about those who comprised the tree from 1820 to 1900. We called this the "Wilhelm-Swick 19th Century Tree". We were unable to include those who became members of the family after 1900 because of the enormous increase in numbers. Instead we started a Spendley tree, using the Directory form. We were proceeding very well with the project until the sudden death of Ann. The project remained dormant for a while.

Young members of the family contacted Marie, my second wife. They asked her to prevail upon me to complete the project. It was reactivated and named the "Walter J. Spendley Sr. Twentieth Century Directory" because he was the oldest living member of the family, the "Patriarch". The project was nearing completion but was again halted because of the sudden death of Marie. Shortly thereafter, the young people asked me to complete the Directory and I felt compelled to honor their requests. The project was finally completed on September 30th, 1988.

Information from the previous tree indicated that Henry J. Spendley was born on May 22nd, 1872 in Oxford, England to Walter J. and Helen White Spendley. He was placed in an orphanage at age two with his sister Emiline who was two years older. He remained in the orphanage until he was 13, when he was released and assigned to work for His Majesty in the Merchant Marine for the same number of years he had spent in the orphanage. At first he was given menial jobs, but he eventually became an able-bodied seaman. After completing his assignment he obtained work on a deep sea whaling vessel.

He became acquainted with a man who was contemplating emigrating to America and he decided to go along. They left England in early 1899 bound for Philadelphia but landed in New York City instead. That same year, they met a Mr. Parr who owned a tailor shop at Columbus Circle, New York City. A young group met at the shop weekly to play cards. They also had a bowling team, the Coco Bowling Club. One of the members of the group, Joseph Wilhelm, had taken a liking to the "Little Englishman Harry", as he called him. Joe invited Harry to meet his family and was well received.

Joe's parents were John J. and Mary Swick Wilhelm. John was born in Germany in 1845 and his parents emigrated to America prior to 1850. In 1861 he enlisted in the Confederate Army and fought for the South in the Civil War. Shortly thereafter, he met and courted Mary Swick who was born in New York City on April 12th, 1847. Her grandparents had emigrated from Germany in 1820. John and Mary were married in October, 1868. They had 13 children.

Joe had a sister Anna, whom he called Rusty. Harry dated Anna regularly and they became very serious. A courting period ensued and Harry decided to embrace the Catholic Religion before marriage. He received instructions from Father Wilson, a Dominican priest. He was baptized and received the sacraments at St. Vincent Ferrer Church, 73rd Street and Lexington Avenue, New York City. Harry and Anna were married June 30th 1903, which is the date for the start of the 20th century directory. They were the first Patriarch and Matriarch. They were the parents of 8 children, the oldest being Walter, the current Patriarch.

Walter met a young lady, Anna J. O'Brien in 1923. She was the daughter of George H. and Anna Hart O'Brien who had 5 other children. George emigrated from Ireland to Plymouth, England where he met Anna Hart at a St. Patrick's Day party on March 17th, 1900. After a whirlwind courtship, they were married on April 17th, 1900 and shortly thereafter emigrated to America. A relative arranged employment for him in the construction of the New York subway. He was a laborer and then a rock driller. After working on various construction sites, he qualified as a dynamite blaster and passed all requirements to become one of the two licensed blasters in the State of New Jersey. His most outstanding accomplishment was the blasting of the cut in Jersey City which became the main traffic artery from the exit of the Holland Tunnel, connecting with the main highways and the Pulaski Skyway.

Unfortunately, it has been impossible to gather additional information on the Spendley and O'Brien families from sources in England. Harry's son, on a business trip, and his granddaughter, on a vacation to England, were told by British Authorities that many records were destroyed by fire caused by the German Bombings during World War II.

Walter and Anna were married on September 4th, 1926. Anna died May 13th, 1973. Two years later, Walter married Marie Martin Kelly. Her husband, William J. Kelly, had passed away in 1969. Walter, Anna, Marie and William had all attended the parochial grammar school of St. Josephs of the Palisades in West New York, N.J. at about the same time.

Marie was the oldest of the 4 daughters of Edward F. and Julia Ryan Martin. Ed's parents, of Irish descent, emigrated from Scotland to Davenport, Iowa where Ed was born. They then moved to Michigan. He eventually moved to Hoboken, N.J. where he met and married Julia Ryan. Her family emigrated from Ireland to Hoboken, N.J. Ed was a telegrapher who was employed by the West Shore Railroad, then by Western Union. The United States declared war on Germany in 1917 and Ed was immediately drafted because of his occupation. He was assigned to Special Services and sent overseas. When arrangements were made to cease the warfare, Ed was sent to witness the proceedings in a railroad car between Marshall Foche of France and Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany. The Armistice which was written in French was signed on November 11th, 1918 at 11:00 A.M. Ed who could speak and read French, deciphered the agreement and transmitted it in English to General John J. Pershing, the Commander-in-Chief of the American Expeditionary Forces. As a result of this clearance, the announcement was sent all over the world.

CONCLUSION

The accumulation of Vital Statistics and pertinent information for the purpose of this Family Directory has been completed. The efforts put forth, in my estimation, were worth while and should be accepted with satisfaction by all concerned.

The information contained in this booklet was not intended to be used for material purposes. Also, it was not intended for family gossip, criticism or theorizing. All family members should remember the greatest Virtue bestowed upon us by the Almighty Father - "Charity of the Tongue".

It is recommended that one person in each family group be designated to relay changes, additions and deletions to the person who will take charge of keeping the Directory up to date in the future. Recognition must always be given to the oldest living male representative as the "Patriarch" and the oldest living female relative as the "Matriarch".

The Directory and other charts were prepared by taking ideas from the various methods with the view it would simplify for the young people who are desirous of preparing their own charts, a basis for a spin off from this directory. The Directory is close to 100% accurate and it is suggested when preparing future spin offs the information furnished must be accurate, complete and truthful, otherwise the endeavor will result in failure.

I would appreciate all family members to remember Ann for her untiring efforts and assistance from the time the project was started until her untimely death. Also, Marie who was responsible for reactivating the project after it had been suddenly halted. A special thank you to all the family members who assisted in obtaining information and later correcting for its accuracy.

Finally, I would like to emphatically state the time and energy devoted to this project was most enjoyable, especially when I hear it is pleasing to the younger members of the family who appear to be more interested in their heritage at the present time, then at any time in the past.

It is my fervent wish to all the family members listed in the Directory a long, healthy and Holy life, also success in all your future endeavors. May God bless all of you. "THE PATRIARCH"

Walter J. Spendley
